

On Wednesday, 7th July, 2021, H.E. Mr. Lindsay Kiptiness, Ambassador of the Republic of Kenya to the Kingdom of Thailand with accreditation to Viet Nam, Cambodia, Laos and Myanmar received at his office the new Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Nigeria to the Kingdom of Thailand and Myanmar. During the courtesy call, the two Ambassadors exchanged views on a cross-range of issues including the place of Africa in the fast-changing Indo-Pacific Region, state of relations between Africa and Thailand, Pan Africanism and the need for Africa to be self-reliant, especially in this era of vaccine nationalism. The two Ambassadors hailed the cordial relations between Kenya and Nigeria and expressed the desire that the two countries will play their leadership role in the implementation of African Union's Agenda 2063.
